

There when you need us the most

Dear 428 Members,

As concern for COVID-19 continues to grow, I'm reaching out to assure you Aflac is here to help valued clients like you.

The situation is evolving rapidly and your employees may have questions about their Aflac benefits as it relates to this pandemic. You can find answers to some frequently asked questions here.

If your employees have questions about their policies not covered in the FAQ, please have them reach out to me. They can also contact Aflac via live chat or email at www.aflac.com/contactus. Our customer service representatives are available Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern time.

We're committed to being there for you and your employees when you need us the most.

Thank you,

Insurance benefits have you in a pickle.....
